THE MEL BAR

Relax and wind down
at the Mel Bar, Millennium House

From the Editor

My wife and I (and the dog) have just returned from staying with some friends in Looe over the weekend of the 'Looe Saves the Day' music festival. It was great to see how the community of Looe rallied round and managed to put on an event at short notice, even as the shocking news of the failure of the official Looe Music Festival hit the headlines. Well done Looe!

It seems that our own community is not doing so badly either, judging by the number of items in this month's edition with reports about events held last month, or notices for upcoming events. Sometimes I have noticed that the preponderance of news in our newsletter concerns mostly the older generations, but the balance is more even this month: Pensilva Primary School has won a prestigious award, there is a Halloween event at Millennium House and "Not a Trick, Just a Treat" next door at St John's church. If you, whatever your age or interests, feel that you and your friends are not catered for by the events taking place in our Parish, then you should think about organising something yourself. The Parish Pump will do everything it can to put you in touch with like-minded people.

Keep well - Joe

CHAIRMAN'S COLUMN

Lets start off this month with a couple of adverts. Firstly, the defibrillators are about to be installed in the Parish, one in St Ive and one in Pensilva. As part of the installation a FREE course in their operation will take place on Monday 29th of October, from 6.30 pm to 8.30pm in the Function room at Millennium House. Please come along and learn how to use these life saving pieces of equipment. Secondly, with Remembrance Sunday not far away, we will be having a clean up around the grounds of Millennium House and the War Memorial, on Saturday the 10th of November from 10-30 am to 1-00pm. We will welcome any volunteers for the event. Tea and cake will be provided to keep us going. The newly resurfaced car park at Millennium House has been well received and, by the time you are reading this, a speed hump will have been installed on the approach road to the car park, along with extra speed limit markings, plus extra CCTV cameras to identify the culprits of any anti-social behaviour that may occur in and around the car park. The library in Millennium House is being well used, and I would like to thank Jill Goody for the work she puts in, to keep it organised and tidy. For the time being we can accept no more books as we are full. If we need any more in the future, we will put a request in the Pump. Thank you to all of you that have supplied the books we have. To finish off this Month, with the evenings drawing in, a quick reminder to parents to ensure their children's bikes have working lights, and please wear something light at night. BE SAFE BE SEEN. Lets not have any accidents.

Pete Haimes.

Pensilva W.I - September Meeting

The speakers at our September meeting were Steve Mason and Mike Richardson from Cornwall Blood Bikes. They gave a very informative presentation on the wonderful work done by their organisation. Blood Bikes was set up in January 2011 by a group of 5 volunteers at Pensilva, and became a registered charity in February of that year.

They are all volunteers and provide an out of hours service delivering items of a medical nature to hospitals etc. They are completely self-funded and receive no financial help at all from the government, but rely on donations from the public. They brought along one of their bikes to show us. Currently they have 9 bikes in their fleet, all of which are second hand, mostly ex police bikes. After lots of questions, vice president Cherry Woodhouse thanked them warmly for giving up their precious time to come and speak to us.

Cherry also thanked all who had helped or supported our Horticultural Show in any way. This had been a great success, with lots of support from the public. Congratulations must also go to Alison Willis for winning the CFWI new press secretary's cup for this year.

A short business time followed, with reminders of forthcoming events.

The book club starts on Oct. 16th at the Millennium Coffee shop at 10am. Programme planning meeting on Mon 22nd Oct. at 2.30pm. Members are asked to come along with ideas for speakers for the coming year.

Wednesday 14th Nov. Traditional embroidery workshop at Marshgate.

The CFWI carol service will be at St Petroc's Church Bodmin Fri 7th Dec.

Birthday girls this month were Marie Warne, Irene Elliot, Rachael Palmer and Jennifer Kelly. Birthday posies, beautifully made by Verna, and cards were presented to them.

Competition winners this month are: Flower of the month, 1st Jill Pascoe, 2nd Irene Elliot, 3rd Mary Yates. A heart any medium, 1st Cherry Woodhouse, 2nd Verna Dawe, 3rd Mavis Philp.

We are reminded that meeting on Wednesday 10th October will be our Bring and Share Harvest Supper and auction of produce. Donations of produce to auction would be very much appreciated. Friends and family are very welcome to join us at 7.15pm at Millennium House.

Open Day at Merryhue Farm

On Thursday August 30th over 40 guests from local charities, organisations and councils attended Merryhue Farm for a special Open Day. The weather was dry, and we even had some sunshine as small groups of guests were given presentations by the 3 organisations that are based at Merryhue – TST (South West) CIC, Battling On CIC and Work Skills South West CIC. The presentations were given by staff from our new wooden teaching pods, and explained some of the work we do, the projects we are involved in and our vision for the future.

Guests were also given time to meet the animals including the alpacas, sheep and pigs, and the newest addition to the farm, Sam, our giant donkey foal born earlier in the summer.

Lunch was a scrumptious feast of homemade soup, bread and hot dogs, all cooked on the WW1 field kitchen in the woods. The lunch break gave everyone the opportunity to come together and network, making valuable contacts for future collaboration on improving the lives of the most vulnerable members of our communities.

The whole day was a great success, we have received a huge amount of positive feedback and we're grateful to all those who came to support us. We look forward to doing it again.

The World War I field kitchen at Merryhue Farm's Open Day.

'Rural Communities Remember' event at Merryhue Farm.

Battling On has been awarded ten glass silhouettes from the Community Covenant Grant scheme 'There but Not There' for its two day remembrance event which will be held at Battling On's centre at Merryhue Farm for Armistice Day. The event will teach young primary school children about all those lost to our communities and the devastating impact that had on the rural economy. The event on 1st to 2nd of November will involve local primary school children, cadets and representatives from parishes in East Cornwall. The glass silhouettes will be placed at stations around the farm, where actors playing the roles of shepherds, foresters, etc. will tell of real people lost to our farms, villages and towns, helping the children to understand the true impact of the war. One Callington family lost three sons and these stories need to be passed down through the generations. At each station, the young people will see rural skills being undertaken, such as heavy horses pulling timber, while tour guides explain how the loss of so many affected the farming community. Battling On has a replica World War 1 Field Kitchen (see above) and will be producing food cooked from WW1 army rations packs, for the school children to taste the food that the soldiers on the frontline would have eaten. A replica trench will allow the children to see the conditions the soldiers had to endure. At the end of the day, Battling On will be reading out the names of the young men lost locally, with the marine cadets playing the Last Post. Email rick@battling-on.com if you are interested or have stories or names that you would like to share at the 'Rural Communities Remember' event.

Pensilva Primary School Achieves Gold!

At the end of last term, Mark Thompson, the BBC One Show astronomer, visited Pensilva Primary School and engaged the pupils in a fantastic Science show. During his visit, he recognised the school's fantastic achievement in gaining the Primary Science Quality Mark Gold Award for Science. This is a difficult award to gain and only held by a few schools across the UK. The school is very proud of this achievement and of the ongoing science teaching and learning that we are part of, both in school and beyond.

Mark Thompson handing the award to Science Coordinator Kristy Rowe, alongside school governor Colin Swinburne and pupils Harry-Jack and Millie.

St Ive Show – 1st September 2018

This year's show was opened by Mrs Ruth Sargent. Ruth is a keen WI member and has been coming to the show for many years. It was a pleasure to hear her talk about how much she loves the show and how important it is to the village.

Entries were up again this year – despite the hot weather. There was a beautiful display of flowers and some magnificent vegetables. The entries in the photography class had increased dramatically – perhaps the fantastic summer helped this category!! The afternoon saw the Village Hall filled with people and entries. It was lovely to see the variety in every category.

The show committee would like to thank everyone who contributed – whether by way of entries, refreshments, raffle prizes, judging, stewarding or pre-show organising. Without the help of all concerned our show would not be the success that it was!

St Ive and District Gardening Association

At our first autumn meeting, Caroline Stone regaled us with the tale of her trip to South Africa with two experts, in search of Nerine Bowdenii growing in the wild. This is the nerine many of us have growing in our gardens thanks to the plant collector from Newton Abbott, Athelstan Cornish-Bowden. Caroline's tips and photos will help us take better care of our nerines and inspire us to try some of the more unusual varieties.

At our next meeting, on Monday 1st October, Simon Dell will be recalling the history of Cornish Policing, as 7:30pm in St. Ive village hall. Visitors always welcome.

THE Growing Project

PENSILVA

September for us is a long-awaited month when a lot of our crops are ready to harvest. We have been harvesting large quantities of tomatoes, cucumbers, patty pan squashes, spaghetti squashes, runner beans, aubergines, courgettes and kale which have been added to in the last few weeks with broccoli, sweet peppers and the first of this years sweetcorn. Next will be our sweet potatoes which are already larger than last years crop and tiger nuts which is one of this years experimental crops.

We have trays of sprouts, kale and chard all ready to go in the ground but we are waiting for some of our current crops to finish before we have room.

We have kindly been donated several large tractor tyres by Caradon tyres which have been moved into position and started being filled with compost, next week we will have hopefully collected manure to fill them to the brim and plant our Christmas potatoes.

Recently we had the opportunity to nominate one of our volunteers for "Cornwall celebrates volunteering" to receive an award. We had no difficulty in deciding our nominee this year, to recognise one of our volunteers Colin who has committed extra time to the project and taken responsibility for our previously neglected fruit bushes, fingers crossed he gets to the shortlist!

We do have a small project on our site we would like to complete and would be grateful for any donations of water butts and guttering, this is to collect rainwater to use for watering.

Our produce is available through our vegetable box scheme and also from our purple roadside stalls where you can find a variety of fruit and vegetables grown on our land with also a small amount of items such as lemons and limes grown by organic suppliers.

We can also be found at Linkinhorne parish hall on Thursdays between 2.30 and 4.30 pm with a mini stall at their open coffee afternoon.

PENSILVA HEALTH CENTRE - PATIENT PARTICIPATION GROUP

We are a group of patients who meet regularly with the Health Centre to bring forward for discussion ideas, comments and suggestions about your surgery. In the past we have held open days, helped at the flu clinics and participated in a trial Peoples Commissioning Board Project.

We also organise a Carer's and bereavement group (see below) and a 'Walking for Health' group

(Contact Ivor Vaughan 07979 934604).

You can contact us directly or through the Health Centre.

PENSILVA HEALTH CENTRE CARERS AND BEREAVEMENT GROUP

Are you a carer, bereaved or lonely? Then come along and join our Group. Tea, Coffee and plenty of friendly chat and, when possible, local trips to various venues.

Meetings are held every third Thursday of each month at 11.30.a.m.
Meet in Millennium House car park.
