It was proposed by Cllr P Haines seconded by Peter Dipper that roadside pavements in Pensilva be sprayed, except around the school. Agreed by 5 votes to 1.
 - B. Road Salt Prices: Cllr Vaughan reported that Cornwall Council's website says they will fill salt bins free, but only once. Cormac require payment. Both statement could be true. The Parish Clerk is pursuing this with Cornwall Council. Cllr Vaughan suggested that we need to buy sacks of salt to store, but the cemetery shed needs to be cleared first.

7. Winter Planning: Cllr Vaughan suggested that we buy salt bins; one for Church Hill and two for the newly tarmacked Millennium House car park. It was thought one bin might be sufficient for the car park footways. Cllr P Haines proposed and Cllr Carr seconded that we buy two salt bins.

8. Tree Surgery: Cllr Carr reported that the Millennium House neighbours bordering the West boundary hedge have all agreed to it being cut. The hedge needs to be reduced in height. Cllr P Haines reminded that the cemetery trees need a qualified and insured tree surgeon to climb and trim trees piece by piece. Peter Dipper knows a contractor he has used. Cllr Corney reminded that all work should be delayed until birds had finished nesting.
